The Financial consulting to a firm is a prerequisite for giving the Company the financial resources they need, both in terms of conventional and unconventional or extraordinary finance.

Cobeu is organized to:

- Support the entire process from the evaluation of the projects to be funded to the request of the funding, the relations with institutions and public bodies, the actual resource availability management for the member.
- Follow the facilitation proposals, by indicating only those which have characteristics of interest for the typology of the investment and for the funds endowment.
- Promptly inform the member about the publication of new facilities and due dates for submission of relevant applications.
- Develop projects and business plans, prepare forms and applications, the only task for the member will be "to affix the signatures."
